

Easy Intermediate Dances

A Drink In My Hand

Choreographer: Sandy Goodman

Music: a Drink In My Hand

I have read great reviews about this dance on various overseas websites, so I thought I would give it a go in my class. A mixed reaction, so I will wait for another couple of weeks before we decide the future of this dance.

I actually don't mind the dance; it's very easy, done to a great country song.

Have You Ever Seen The Rain

Choreographer: Dee Musk

Music: Have You Ever Seen the Rain by Rod Stewart

This is a really lovely dance from Dee, which the class really enjoyed.

I did try it to the Credence Clearwater song & it fits just as well as the Rod Stewart version, the restart happens in the same place. We danced it to both songs & the class was divided as to which song they preferred, it works well with both.

Not Without Us

Choreographer: Ria Vos

Music: Not Without Us by DJ Otzi

I carried this dance through to all my classes, it was a mixed reaction, some liked it some hated it. The Easy Intermediates seemed to enjoy it more than the Intermediates. The first 4 counts caused a few laughs at first, but after some practice it soon sunk in. I like the dance; it's a fun, throw in dance that is not hard, no tags or restarts.
